

WASHOUGAL TUNNEL BRINGS HERITAGE, PEOPLE AND RIVER TOGETHER

Aug

HEATHER ACHESON/POST-RECORD

On Saturday morning, local officials including (left to right) former Washougal Mayor Jeff Guard, current Washougal Mayor Sean Guard, Third District Congressman Brian Baird, retired Pendleton Woolen Mills Manager Broughton Bishop, and current Pendleton Manager Charlie Bishop (not pictured) performed the Washougal Pedestrian Tunnel's ceremonial grand opening using a ribbon made from Pendleton wool. The event was attended by a variety of local, state and federal officials and representatives. The tunnel entrance is located at 2 Pendleton Way, in downtown Washougal.

August 2010